

Making Inferences

Answer the questions in a lined exercise book or on lined paper.
Use full sentences, include explanations and detail.

Literal Questions:

1. What weather do you see?
2. How many people are in the picture?
3. Where are they?

Making Inferences:

1. Why are they running away?
2. Why do you think they are holding hands?
3. Where do you think they might be going?
4. Who do you think they are?
5. How do you think they are feeling?

Making Inferences

Looking carefully at the picture.

- Think of 5 questions you could ask.
- They must be full sentences and have a question mark.
- Try to make the first 2 literal questions and the rest inferential questions.
- See the examples used with the last picture.
