

Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone

1. Number 4, Privet Drive
2. Director of a firm called Grunnings which made drills
3. Large, well-built
4. '...craning over fences, spying on the neighbours.'
5. They were embarrassed by the Potters because they were so different to them.
6. It looked like it was reading a map and the road sign.
7. It was such an odd thing to wear so they must have been collecting for something.
