

Inventions Pyramid

You have been learning about different inventions. Which of the inventions below do you think is most important or useful? Cut out the inventions and stick them on the pyramid, with the most important at the top and the least important at the bottom.

Explain how you chose the most important invention and the reasons for your choice.

I chose this invention as the most important one because:

