Let your light shine

“Let your light shine before others that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.” Matthew 5:16

Let your light shine on our vision:

As God’s children, overflowing with His light, we will shine before others to inspire, nurture and bring joy so all may embrace life in its fullness to the glory of God.

Our Christian value for this half-term is

PEACE

Please help your child to reflect on the importance of this Christian value.

Life at Kingsland CE Primary School: life in all its fullness (John 10:10)

As we close a door on this academic year, we say a huge THANK YOU ... to the children, parents, governors and staff who have worked tirelessly during this very challenging year. We encourage everyone to rest and enjoy the summer, ready to return to school with renewed energy in September.

We say goodbye to our Y6 children and wish them all well on their next exciting adventures as they move to secondary school, thinking about the phrase which is on their leavers’ certificates:

‘The challenge is to be yourself in a world that is trying to make you like everyone else’

The Office of TRH The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge

Private and Confidential

19th July, 2021

Dear Children,

The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge have asked me to thank you for your letter of 28th April, in which you wrote that you have been learning about The Royal Family. I apologise for the delay in replying to you but, as I hope you will understand, recent events have limited this office's capacity to respond to correspondence as quickly as we would like.

Their Royal Highnesses receive many letters and unfortunately, this means that they are unable to respond personally to each one. However, I can say on their behalf that they were pleased to hear that you enjoyed learning about The Royal Family, and they were delighted to read your warm positive words of support for what they do.

The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge were immensely touched that you should take the trouble to write as you did. It really was most thoughtful of you and Their Royal Highnesses have asked me to send you their warmest thanks and best wishes.

Yours sincerely,

Claudia Spens

This was most thoughtful of you and greatly appreciated by Their Royal Highnesses who send you their warmest thanks and best wishes.

Class 2 were delighted to receive this letter from Kensington Palace this week!

As we say goodbye to our fabulous Y6s, we share an important message which we hope they will keep close to their hearts as they move to secondary school:

LET NO-ONE STEAL YOUR DREAMS

Let no-one steal your dreams
Let no-one tear apart
The burning of ambition
That fires the drive inside your heart

Let no-one steal your dreams
Let no-one tell you that you can't
Let no-one hold you back
Let no-one tell you that you won't

Set your sights and keep them fixed
Set your sights on high
Let no-one steal your dreams
Your only limit is the sky

Let no-one steal your dreams
Follow your heart
Follow your soul
For only when you follow them
Will you feel truly whole

Set your sights and keep them fixed
Set your sights on high
Let no-one steal your dreams
Your only limit is the sky

This half term's Christian value is:

PEACE

Educating for Hope and Aspiration

A prayer for PEACE

God of peace, We pray for peace in our world, and an end to conflict. Instead of hatred, let there be love. Shelter your children and protect us. Guide us and keep us from harm, so we can build a world of love and live our lives in peace. Amen.

Christian Value Family Reflection

Welcome to our Christian Value Family Reflection which offers some suggestions, thoughts and ways into exploring and reflecting on the value of this half term: PEACE

A reflection on PEACE by Hannah Vernon, Foundation Governor, Eardisland Church

Do you ever find yourself in a REALLY bad temper? Like you're boiling with rage? Or do you get really worried or scared about something, and you can't seem to think about anything else? I think this happens to everyone, a lot of the time! When I'm angry or anxious, all my thoughts and emotions spin wildly around me, and it's like I'm caught up in a whirlwind!

When this happens, I think about or look for the things which bring me PEACE. Cuddling my dog can provide some calm; counting to ten makes breathing a little easier; finding somewhere quiet to sit still helps; but what works best for me is a bike ride, and remembering my favourite line from the Bible: 'I will lift up my eyes to the hills' (Psalm 121). I hop on my bike, and pedal away until I can see Hay Bluff and other peaks of the Black Mountains in the distance. For me, that view and those words represent peace and they make me feel better: peace is a bit like medicine for the soul.

So, what does peace mean to YOU, and how do you find it? Maybe peace is a place, like your garden, or a den, where nobody else is allowed to enter! Perhaps peace is a feeling you get when someone gives you a long hug. Peace might be a moment, when nothing or nobody around you is disturbing you. You might see peace when you gaze at a burning candle or a calm sea. You might hear peace, when you're by a trickling stream or somewhere completely silent. Everyone's experience and definition of peace will be different, but, hopefully, everyone can find some form of peace in their daily life, wherever they are in the world.

For Christians, Jesus is the source of peace. In the Old Testament, Isaiah tells us of Jesus' birth and that he will be named 'Prince of Peace' (Isaiah 9:6). Then, when Jesus is a grown man, on the night before his crucifixion, he tells his anxious disciples, 'Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.' This is a promise that Jesus makes: that if we have faith and put our problems in God's hands, He will put peace in our hearts.
