

Kingsland CE Primary School

Writing Curriculum: Class 3 – Curriculum A

Autumn	Spring	Summer
Stone Age Boy – Satoshi Kitamura Mammoth Pie – Jeanne Willis How to Wash a Woolly Mammoth – Michelle Robinson 	The Twits – Roald Dahl Revolting Rhymes – Roald Dahl 	Lila and the Secret of Rain – David Conway Bringing the Rain to Kapiti Plain – Verna Aardema
Text types - Recount – summer holidays - Recount – summarising the story - Narrative – dialogue between the girl and boy - Instructions – How to Wash a Woolly Mammoth - Poetry – Mammoth Pie Rhyme - Improving sentences	Text types - Biography – Who was Roald Dahl? - Character description – Mr and Mrs Twit - Persuasion – For/against zoos - Letter – To Mr and Mrs Twit - Poetry – Roly Poly Birds' Song	Text types - Setting description - Narrative – narration and dialogue between characters - Explanation text – The Importance of Rain - Recount – Diary - Narrative – The Day the Sun Came - Poetry – Thank you for the rain
Grammar - Place Value of Punctuation and Grammar - Noun phrases - Fronted adverbials - Direct speech - Imperative verbs - Capital letters - Full stops - Question marks - Exclamation marks	Grammar - Co-ordinating conjunctions - Noun phrases - Apostrophes for singular and plural possession - Commas in lists - Capital letters - Full stops - Question marks - Exclamation marks	Grammar - Direct speech - Noun phrases - Present perfect form of the verb - Fronted adverbials - Capital letters - Full stops - Question marks - Exclamation marks