Writing Plot Point 1 and 2 of my own version of 'Flood', based on the book by Alvaro F. Villa

Plot Point 1 – A circling crow and a busy school playground
I must include...	Tick when achieved
○ Verbs for a flying bird (hovering, gliding, soaring, etc.).
○ 'Where' fronted adverbial to tell the reader where the bird is ○ Precise verb for the crow getting closer ○ Complex sentence beginning with 'As'
○ Complex sentence using -ing verbs for what some of the children are doing on the playground
○ Expanded noun phrases (E.g. a young boy with short hair by the fence)

Plot Point 2 – A menacing storm
I must include...	Tick when achieved
○ Inner thought of the headteacher
○ A synonym for 'thought'
○ Speech for what the headteacher tells his staff
○ Repetition for effect using words for the storm
○ 'Personification for the storm and the reaction of the school building
