

Using and, but and or

You can use joining words like and, but and or to join sentences.

Steve is big but
Karen is small.

She has wings
and she can fly.

- ① Circle the joining words in each sentence.

Emma is sad but I am happy.

I love fish and I like chips.

We can go to the park or we can stay at home.

Lunch is ready but I'm not hungry.

- ② Draw lines to join these sentences together.

My dad is called Jim

but snails are very slow.

Lions are very fast

or you can have an apple.

You can have a banana and my mum is called Sue.

- ③ Write an ending for each sentence. Use the pictures for ideas.

I might read a book or _____.

Harini plays outside and _____.

Sarah likes snakes but _____.

After you have completed it, can you finish the sentences on the next page with either 'and' 'but' and 'or'

The princess looked out of the window in the highest tower ...

The youngest daughter tried ...

In the winter, hedgehogs sometimes curl up in piles of rubbish ...

We sat on the wall to eat our ice creams ...

Later I went down to the water's edge ...

Tortoises sleep through winter ...