

My Favourite Holiday

Today we are going to write about our favourite holiday.

Things that you could possibly include in your writing:

Where did you go? Was it abroad or in the UK? Was it in summer or winter?

What was the weather like? Hot or cold...

Did you do anything special? Skiing, swimming in the sea, walking in the mountains.

What food did you eat when you were there? Any special food from that country. Fresh fish from the seaside.

Where did you stay? House or hotel. What was it like?

Did you go with anybody special?

On the following page I have written an example which might help you. Then on the page after that I have produced a plan which will help you to put your ideas down onto paper.

Remember to include capital letters, full stops and all sentences must make sense.

My Favourite Holiday

My favourite holiday was the first time I had ever been abroad. I went with my mum, dad, brother, aunty, uncle and cousins. I can remember sitting on the plane with a mixture of excitement and wonder. I felt a little nervous as the plane lifted its nose into the air. When I arrived in Ibiza, I couldn't believe how hot it was at 7pm at night. It took my breath away.

The next day I woke and with great excitement I ran and jumped into the swimming pool. It was freezing! It took my breath away again but for different reasons.

Later in the day, we walked to a tiny secluded beach. It was beautiful. There was the amazing sight of the jagged cliffs against the blue water of the sea. The water was so clear that I spent the afternoon snorkelling and looking at the wonderful colour of the fishes and crabs.

We did many different activities whilst we were in Ibiza. My favourite activity was parasailing. This is where you are attached to a parachute from the back of a boat. The view from up high was amazing and I didn't want it to end.

I look back at my first holiday and I remember why it was such a fantastic time!
